- (a) Subject to paragraph 14.4(b), a General Operational Staff Employee, Nursing Staff Employee or Boarding House Staff Employee working a broken shift as provided for in paragraph 13.1(h), shall be paid a penalty rate of 15% of the ordinary time rate for each hour worked.
- (b) The broken shift penalty rate shall not be paid to a Boarding House Staff Employee who is provided with reasonable accommodation including living quarters, fuel and electricity available to the Employee for their exclusive use for 52 weeks of the year, at no cost to the Employee.
- (c) The broken shift penalty rate shall not be paid to a Boarding House Staff Employee to whom paragraph 13.1(f) applies.

15. Overtime

15.1 Subject to subclause 15.6 an Employer may require an Employee to work overtime at overtime rates. All time required by the Employer to be worked outside the ordinary hours of work prescribed by Clause 13 - Hours of Work, or in the case of shift workers, as prescribed by Clause 14 - Shiftwork, shall be overtime and shall be paid for at the rate of time and one-half for the first two hours and double time thereafter; provided that overtime at the rate of double time shall be paid for all overtime worked between midnight Friday and midnight Sunday. In computing overtime each day's work shall stand alone.

15.2 Minimum Break before Resumption of Duty

- (a) Wherever reasonably practicable, overtime shall be arranged so that Employees have at least ten consecutive hours off duty between the work of successive days ('the Minimum Break');
- (b) An Employee other than a casual Employee who works so much overtime between the termination of their ordinary work on one day and the commencement of their ordinary work on the next day that they have not had the Minimum Break shall, subject to this subclause, be released after completion of such overtime until they have had the Minimum Break, without loss of pay, for ordinary working time occurring during such absence;
- (c) If, on the instruction of the Employer, an Employee resumes or continues work without having had the Minimum Break, they shall be paid at double time rates until they are released from duty for such period and he/she then shall be entitled to be absent until they have had the Minimum Break without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

15.3 Time Off in Lieu of Payment for Overtime

- (a) Where an Employee has performed work on overtime, the Employee may elect, with the consent of the Employer, to take time off in lieu of payment for overtime at a time or times agreed with the Employer within 12 months of the election. Such election will be evidenced in writing and kept with time and wages records.
- (b) Overtime taken as time off during ordinary time hours will be taken at the ordinary time rate, that is, an hour for each hour worked, in respect of overtime worked between Monday and Friday inclusive.
- (c) Normal overtime rates for Saturday and Sunday as set out in subclause 15.1 will typically apply for those days, provided that an Employee may request that the Employer provide time off instead of payment of overtime equivalent to the number of hours of payment the Employee would have received had they been paid overtime for such work.
- (d) An Employee may not accumulate more than 20 hours to be taken as time off in lieu of payment for overtime.
- (e) An Employee will be paid any outstanding time off in lieu of payment for overtime at the appropriate overtime rate provided for in subclause 15.1 if:

- (i) such leave has not been taken within 12 months of accrual; or
- (ii) the Employee's employment terminates.

15.4 Recall to Work

- (a) An Employee required to attend the Employer's premises for a reason other than carrying out rostered duties after leaving the place of employment (whether notified before or after leaving the place of employment) shall be paid a minimum of two hours pay at the appropriate rate for each such attendance, except in the case of cleaners who shall be paid a minimum of four hours pay at the appropriate rate for such attendance.
- (b) This subclause shall not apply where a period of duty is continuous (notwithstanding that the Employer may allow the Employee a reasonable meal break before, during or after such attendance) with the completion or commencement of ordinary working time.
- (c) The minimum period of payment in paragraph 15.4(a) shall not apply to an Employee to whom subclause 5.3 applies, however such Employee shall be paid for the period of work actually performed.
- (d) Work performed as part of a rostered broken shift arrangement does not, of itself, constitute a recall to work.
- (e) An Employee who is required to perform work during a period for which the Employee receives a sleepover allowance shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of subclause 11.13 in lieu of the provisions of this subclause.

15.5 For overtime worked on a Sunday double ordinary time with a minimum payment for four hours' work shall be paid.

15.6 An Employee may refuse to work overtime in circumstances where the working of such overtime would result in the Employee working hours which are unreasonable. What is unreasonable or otherwise will be determined having regard to:

- (a) any risk to Employee's health or safety;
- (b) the Employee's personal circumstances including any family and carer responsibilities;
- (c) the needs of the workplace or enterprise;
- (d) the notice (if any) given by the Employer of the overtime and by the Employee of his or her intention to refuse it; and
- (e) any other relevant matter.

PART E – LEAVE

16. Annual Leave and Payment on Termination

16.1 The provisions of subclauses 16.2 to 16.7 only apply to Employees who are paid in accordance with subclause 9.3, and such provisions apply:

- (a) in lieu of corresponding annual leave provisions of the Act; and
- (b) notwithstanding any other clauses in this Agreement.

For all other Employees, annual leave and payment on termination provisions are governed by the Act.

16.2 The provisions of this clause shall apply as set out in the relevant subclauses, where:

- (a) an Employee's employment ceases;
- (b) an Employee commences employment after the school service date;
- (c) an Employee takes approved leave without pay or unpaid parental leave for a period which (in total) exceeds 20 pupil days in any year; or
- (d) the working hours of the Employee have varied since the school service date.

16.3 Calculation of Payments

(a) Except in circumstances where the working hours of an Employee have also varied since the school service date, a payment made pursuant to paragraphs 16.2(a), (b) or (c) shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Step 1 } \frac{A \times B}{C} = D$$

$$\text{Step 2 } D - E = F$$

$$\text{Step 3 } \frac{F \times G}{2} = H$$

where:

A = The number of term weeks worked by the Employee since the school service date

B = The number of non-term weeks in the school year

C = The number of term weeks in the school year

D = Result in weeks

E = The number of non-term weeks for which the Employee has received payment since the school service date or the commencement of the Employee's service, whichever is the later.

F = Result in weeks

G = The Employee's current fortnightly salary

H = Amount Due

- (b) A payment made pursuant to paragraph 16.2(d) to an Employee whose normal working hours have varied shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

Step 1 $A - B = C$

Step 2 $\frac{C \times D}{E} = F$

Step 3 $F - B = G$

where:

A = Total salary paid to the Employee since the school service date

B = Salary paid to the Employee in respect of non-term weeks since the school service date

C = Salary paid to the Employee in respect of term weeks since the school service date

D = The total number of non-term weeks in the school year

E = The total number of term weeks in the school year (except in the case of an Employee who has taken unpaid leave during the school year which was not greater than four term weeks in total, in which case E shall be equal to the total number of term weeks in the school year less the number of term weeks of the unpaid leave).

F = Result in dollars

G = Amount Due

16.4 Employees who commence Employment after the School Service Date

An Employee who commences employment after the school service date shall be paid from the date the Employee commences provided that, at the end of Term 4, the Employee shall be paid an amount calculated pursuant to subclause 16.3 and shall receive no other salary until his or her return to work in the following school year.

16.5 Employees who take Approved Leave Without Pay or Unpaid Parental Leave

Where an Employee takes leave without pay or unpaid parental leave with the approval of the Employer for a period which (in total) exceeds 20 pupil days in any year, the Employee shall be paid salary calculated in accordance with this clause as follows:

- (a) if the leave commences and concludes in the same school year payment shall be calculated and made at the conclusion of Term 4 of that school year.
- (b) if the leave is to conclude in a school year following the school year in which the leave commenced:
 - (i) at the commencement of the leave a payment shall be calculated and made in respect of the school year in which the leave commences; and
 - (ii) at the end of Term 4 in the school year in which the leave concludes a payment shall be calculated and made in respect of that school year.
- (c) Where an Employee who has received a payment pursuant to paragraph 16.5(b) returns from leave in the same year rather than the next school year as anticipated, then the Employee shall be paid at the conclusion of Term 4 as follows:
 - (i) by applying the formula in subclause 16.3 as if no payment had been made to the Employee at the commencement of leave;
 - (ii) by deducting from that amount the amount earlier paid to the Employee.

16.6 Employees Whose Hours Have Varied

Where the hours which an Employee normally works at a school have varied since the school service date in any school year and the Employee's employment is to continue into the next school year, the Employee shall be paid throughout the summer pupil vacation as follows:

- (a) the amount due pursuant to the formula paragraph 16.3(b) shall be calculated; and
- (b) the Employee shall continue to receive in each fortnight of the pupil vacation period the same amount as his or her ordinary pay in the last fortnight of the school term until the total amount received by the Employee during the pupil vacation period is the same as the amount calculated above. (Note - this will have the consequence that the last fortnight of the pupil vacation period in which the Employee is paid the amount received will differ from the pay in the preceding fortnights).

- 16.7 Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 16.1(a) an Employee shall not pursuant to this clause, be paid an amount in respect of a year of employment which is less than the amount to which the Employee would otherwise be entitled under the Annual Leave provisions of the Act in respect of a year of employment.

- 16.8 Caretakers whose ordinary working hours include work on Saturdays and/or Sundays on which they may be regularly rostered for work, shall be entitled to an additional week of annual leave per annum.
- 16.9 All Nursing Staff Employees who commenced employment prior to 1 December 2005 other than casual nurses, shall receive nine weeks paid annual leave per year, of which not less than six weeks shall be in one unbroken period during the Christmas vacation period.

17. Annual Leave Loading

- 17.1 Annual leave loading is payable to an Employee in addition to the pay for the period of annual leave taken by the Employee. Provided however, that the Employer may elect to pay the loading in respect of each School Year to the Employee with the first salary payment in December of that School Year at the rate of pay applicable on 1 December of that School Year.
- 17.2 The loading is to be calculated in relation to any period of annual leave taken by an Employee to which the Employee holds an entitlement provided that the loading will only apply to the first four weeks of annual leave prescribed by subclause 16.9 - Annual Leave.
- 17.3 The loading is the amount payable for the period stated in subclause 17.2, at the rate of 17.5 per cent (or such higher percentage as may be applicable under subclause 17.6) of the Employee's ordinary weekly time rate of pay prescribed by this Agreement immediately before commencing their annual leave but shall not include any other allowances or payments prescribed by this Agreement. For the purposes of this subclause only, the ordinary weekly time rate of pay in respect of Maintenance and Outdoor Staff and General Operational Staff includes the Leading Hand Allowance.
- 17.4 Where an Employee receives a payment pursuant to subclause 16.3 the Employee shall be entitled to the fraction of four weeks leave loading as is equal to the number of weeks worked by the Employee in that School Year compared to the number of weeks in the year since the School Service Date.
- 17.5 Where the employment of an Employee is terminated for any reason and at the time of the termination the Employee has not been given and has not taken the whole of the annual leave to which they are entitled, they shall be paid a loading calculated in accordance with subclause 17.3 for the period not taken. In the case of an Employee who receives a payment upon termination in accordance with subclause 16.3, such loading shall be calculated and paid in accordance with subclause 17.4.
- 17.6 In the case of an Employee who would have worked on shiftwork had they not been on annual leave, such Employee shall be paid the greater of either the annual leave loading of 17.5 per cent of their ordinary weekly time rate, or the applicable shift penalty.

18. Personal/Carer's Leave

The provisions of subclauses 18.1 to 18.5 apply to full-time and part-time Employees only.

18.1 Entitlement

- (a) Employees shall be entitled to personal/carer's leave, on full pay, upon the commencement of employment and upon each anniversary of their continuous service in accordance with the following table:

Employees who work 45 weeks or more per year	15 days personal/carer's leave per annum
Employees who work 41 weeks or more, but less than 45 weeks per year	14 days personal/carer's leave per annum
Employees who work less than 41 weeks per year	13 days personal/carer's leave per annum

- (b) The personal/carer's leave entitlement of a part-time Employee shall be in that proportion which the number of hours worked by the Employee in a week bears to a full-time Employee.
- (c) When the number of hours worked by an Employee varies, the entitlement to personal/carer's leave shall be calculated and credited to the Employee in hours at the time of such variation.
- (d) If the full period of personal/carer's leave is not taken in any year, the whole of any untaken portion shall be cumulative from year to year. Provided that an Employer shall not be bound to credit an Employee for personal/carer's leave which accrued more than 15 years before the end of the last completed year of service and the maximum accrual of personal/carer's leave (including accruals from the current year and previous years) shall be 154 days. However, if as a result of this accrual cap, an Employee's entitlement to personal/carer's leave would be less than what the Employee would have otherwise accrued under the NES of the Act, then the entitlement under the Act shall prevail.

18.2 Accrual prior to this Agreement

Prior service shall be taken into account for the purpose of calculating the accrued personal/carer's leave entitlement. The rates, in accordance with the industrial instruments that previously applied to Employees, are summarised below:

- (i) because the Employee is not fit or able to work due to personal illness, or personal injury, or an unexpected personal emergency, or domestic violence affecting the Employee; or
 - (ii) to provide care or support to a member of the Employee's immediate family, or a member of the Employee's household who requires care or support because of:

- (A) a personal illness or personal injury;
 - (B) an unexpected emergency; or
 - (C) domestic violence.
- (b) For the purposes of this clause an 'unexpected personal emergency' is a circumstance that is unplanned, due to circumstances beyond the Employee's control and is of an urgent and serious nature that requires the urgent attendance of the Employee.
 - (c) For the purposes of this clause, an 'unexpected emergency' is a circumstance that is unplanned, due to circumstances beyond the Employee's immediate family or household member's control and is of an urgent and serious nature that requires the urgent attention of the Employee to attend and provide care or support. The urgent circumstance must be of such a nature that it cannot be arranged outside of work time.
 - (d) Employees shall not be entitled to paid personal/carer's leave for any period in respect of which the Employee is entitled to Workers' Compensation under applicable legislation.

18.4 Notice Requirements

As soon as practicable, and where possible prior to the Employee commencing such leave, an Employee shall notify the Employer of:

- (a) their intention to take personal/carer's leave;
- (b) the reason for their absence, being a reason specified in subclause 18.3; and
- (c) the period, or expected period of their leave.

18.5 Evidence Requirements

- (a) Where an Employee takes leave, with the exception of the first 3 days in each year, for the reasons set out in subparagraph 18.3(a)(i), the Employee shall, if requested by the Employer, provide a certificate from a medical practitioner or evidence from a registered health practitioner or other evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave was taken for such a purpose. Provided that where a single day absence occurs before and/or after a public holiday or a rostered day off such evidence must be supplied.
- (b) Where an Employee takes leave due to unexpected personal emergency or domestic violence, the Employee will, upon request, provide documentation acceptable to the Employer or a statutory declaration outlining the nature of the unexpected personal emergency, or the fact of domestic violence, and that such circumstance prevented the Employee from attending work.
- (c) Where an Employee takes leave to provide care or support for a member of the Employee's immediate family, or a member of the Employee's household as set out in subparagraph 18.3(a)(ii), the Employee shall, upon request:
 - (i) produce evidence from a registered medical practitioner or health practitioner, or statutory declaration, establishing the illness or injury of the person concerned and that the illness or injury is such as to require care by another person; or

- (ii) produce documentation acceptable to the Employer or a statutory declaration, establishing the nature of the unexpected emergency and that such unexpected emergency resulted in the person concerned requiring care by the Employee.
- (d) In normal circumstances, an Employee must not take personal/carer's leave under subparagraph 18.3(a)(ii) where another person had taken leave to care for the same person.

18.6 Unpaid Leave For Caring Purposes

- (a) An Employee including a casual Employee is entitled to take up to two days of unpaid carer's leave for each occasion when a member of the Employee's immediate family, or member of the Employee's household, requires care or support due to:
- (i) a personal illness or personal injury affecting the member; or
 - (ii) an unexpected emergency affecting the member; or
 - (iii) the birth of a child.

The Employer and the Employee may agree on a period greater than two days for which the Employee will be on unpaid leave for caring purposes.

- (b) An Employee cannot take unpaid carer's leave under this subclause if the Employee could instead take paid personal/carer's leave.
- (c) An Employee's entitlement to take unpaid personal/carer's leave under this subclause is subject to the Employee meeting the notice requirements set out in subclause 18.4, and the evidence requirements set out in subclause 18.5.
- (d) An Employer must not fail to re-engage a casual Employee because the Employee accessed the entitlements provided for in this subclause. The rights of an Employer to engage or not to engage a casual Employee are otherwise not affected.

- 18.7 As an alternative to accessing personal/carer's leave an Employee may elect, with the consent of the Employer, to work "make-up time" in accordance with subclause 13.8, to take time off work to provide care and support to a member of the Employee's immediate family or member of the Employee's household.

19. Parental Leave

Except as varied by this clause the parental leave provisions under the Act shall apply.

19.1 Paid Parental Leave

- (a) An Employee shall be entitled to take paid parental leave in accordance with this subclause if:
 - (i) they have an entitlement to take parental leave under the Act: and
 - (ii) they will be the primary person responsible for the care of the child from the child's date of birth (being birth-related under the Act) or, in the case of adoption (being adoption-related leave under the Act) from the child's date of placement with the Employee.
- (b) Paid parental leave shall be for a continuous period of 14 weeks paid at the rate of pay the Employee would have received for that period if the Employee had not taken parental leave. If the period of parental leave taken by the Employee is for less than 14 weeks then the period of paid parental leave shall be for such lesser period.
 - (i) For Employees required to work 48 weeks a year and paid an unaveraged salary in accordance with subclause 9.2, the 14 weeks paid parental leave shall be inclusive of non term periods falling within the 14 weeks. For the purpose of this subparagraph, paid parental leave shall not include any period of annual leave.
 - (ii) For Employees not required to work 48 weeks a year and paid an averaged salary in accordance with subclause 9.3, the 14 weeks paid parental leave shall be inclusive of non-term periods falling within the 14 weeks, other than where an Employee works up until the last day of a term in which case the paid parental leave shall be deemed to commence from the first day of the following school term. For the purpose of this subclause, non-term periods shall not include a period of four weeks annual leave to which the Employee is entitled, and which is generally taken in the first four weeks of the school summer vacation period.
 - (iii) For Employees not required to work 48 weeks a year and stood down without pay during pupil vacation periods in accordance with subclause 5.2 the 14 weeks paid parental leave shall be inclusive of non term periods falling within the 14 weeks and shall be paid at the Employee's unaveraged weekly salary for the entire period of paid parental leave for a period not exceeding 14 weeks.
- (c) The Employee may elect to be paid during the period of paid leave in paragraph 19.1(b) either in accordance with the usual Employer payment schedule or as a lump sum payment in advance
- (d) Where an Employee applies for a lump sum payment in advance under paragraph 19.1(c), the Employee shall give the Employer at least one month's notice of their intention.

- (e) If a female Employee has commenced paid parental leave and subsequently the Employee's pregnancy results in a still birth or death of a child, the Employee shall be entitled to retain payment in accordance with this subclause equivalent to the salary payable for the period of parental leave taken by the Employee.
- (f) Paid parental leave shall commence no earlier than one term prior to the expected date of birth, or in the case of adoption, from the date of the child's placement with the Employee for adoption
- (g) The Employer may deduct payment for any absence of the Employee due to personal illness or injury (to which the Employee, but for this subclause, would have been entitled to paid leave under Clause 18 - Personal/Carer's Leave), in the period of four calendar weeks prior to the expected date of birth, from the payment of paid parental leave to which the Employee is entitled pursuant to this subclause.
- (h) Non-term weeks within the period of paid parental leave shall be deemed to be non-term weeks worked by the Employee for the purpose of Clause 16 - Annual Leave and Payment on Termination.
- (i) An Employee on paid parental leave in accordance with this subclause will not be employed as a casual Employee by the Employer during such paid leave.
- (j) Where an Employee gives birth to a child whilst on unpaid parental leave (other than parental leave in relation to the birth of the same child) the Employee will be entitled to unpaid parental leave in accordance with the Act. However, the Employee will not be entitled to an additional 14 weeks payment in accordance with paragraph 19.1(b).
- (k) A maximum period of 14 weeks will be counted as service where payment is made in accordance with paragraph 19.1(b). Periods of unpaid parental leave will not count as service.

19.2 Paid Parental Leave (not primary caregiver)

- (a) Where an Employee has an entitlement to and takes parental leave under the Act but is not the primary person responsible for the care of the child, the Employee shall be entitled to paid parental leave in accordance with this subclause.
- (b) An Employee shall be entitled to:
 - (i) one day of leave with pay on the date of their child's birth, or on the day on which their child or the primary person responsible for the care of the child leaves hospital following the child's birth, or in the case of adoption, the date of the child's placement; and
 - (ii) in addition to the entitlement in subparagraph 19.2(b)(i), the Employee will be entitled, subject to this subclause, to take paid parental leave in one continuous period not exceeding two weeks. The first week of such leave will be paid by the Employer and the second week of such leave will be deducted from, and will not exceed, the Employee's entitlement to paid personal/carer's leave pursuant to Clause 18 – Personal Carer's Leave.

- (c) The Employee shall be entitled to take such parental leave in the four weeks before the date or expected date of the birth of the child and not later than four weeks after the birth of the child, provided that the Employer may, in exceptional circumstances, request the Employee to take leave at a time outside the period specified in this paragraph. If the Employee chooses to agree to the Employer's request, such agreement shall be recorded in writing. Where the Employee does not agree, the leave shall be taken in accordance with this paragraph. In the case of adoption-related leave, unless otherwise agreed by the Employer, an Employee's entitlement to take paid parental leave cannot start earlier than the date of the child's placement.
- (d) The entitlement to paid parental leave in paragraph 19.2(b) is inclusive of, and not in addition to, the Employee's entitlement to take unpaid concurrent leave in accordance with the Act.
- (e) The Employee must give a minimum of four weeks' written notice of the dates on which the Employee proposes to start and end the period of paid parental leave. The proposed dates may be varied by further notice, subject to the provisions of paragraph 19.2(c).

19.3 Casual Employees

An Employer must not fail to re-engage an eligible casual Employee because:

- (a) the Employee is expecting the birth of their child;
- (b) the Employee is or has been immediately absent on parental leave.

The rights of an Employer in relation to engagement and re-engagement of casual Employees are not affected, other than in accordance with this clause.

19.4 Right to Request Extension of Parental Leave

An Employee entitled to parental leave may request the Employer to allow the Employee to extend the period of simultaneous unpaid parental leave up to a maximum of eight weeks or to extend the period of unpaid parental leave for a further continuous period of leave not exceeding 12 months. The request and the response must comply with the provisions set out in subclauses 28.3 and 28.4.

19.5 Communication During Parental Leave

- (a) Where an Employee is on parental leave and a definite decision has been made to introduce significant change at the workplace, the Employer shall take reasonable steps to:
 - (i) make information available in relation to any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the Employee held before commencing parental leave; and

- (ii) provide an opportunity for the Employee to discuss any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the Employee held before commencing parental leave.
- (b) The Employee shall take reasonable steps to inform the Employer about any significant matter that will affect the Employee's decision regarding the duration of parental leave to be taken, whether the Employee intends to return to work and whether the Employee intends to request to return to work on a part-time basis.
- (c) The Employee shall also notify the Employer of change of address or other contact details which might affect the Employer's capacity to comply with paragraph 19.5(a).

20. Long Service Leave

20.1 Applicability of Long Service Leave Act 1955 (NSW)

- (a) Except in so far as expressly varied by the provisions of this clause, the provisions of the Long Service Leave Act 1955 (NSW) shall apply to Employees employed under this Agreement.

20.2 Entitlement

- (a) In recognition of changes to the hours of work of Employees during the course of their working career, long service leave entitlements accrue on the basis of an Employee's working hours at the time of accrual, and leave is subsequently debited according to the Employee's working hours at the time the leave is taken. From date of commencement of this Agreement;
 - (i) full-time Employees shall be entitled to 49.4 hours of long service leave per year of service; and
 - (ii) part-time Employees shall be entitled to long service leave on a pro rata basis in that proportion which the number of hours worked by the Employee in a week bears to a full-time Employee.
- (b) Conversion to Hours Based Accruals
 - (i) Long Service Leave entitlements for all Employees were converted to hours based accruals under previous industrial instruments on the following dates:
 - (A) 30 January 2006 in the case of School Support Staff Employees and Maintenance and Outdoor Staff Employees;
 - (B) 26 December 2013 in the case of all other Employees except Information Technology Staff Employees;
 - (C) 25 December 2015 in the case of Information Technology Staff Employees.
- (c) The following formula is used to convert an Employee's entitlement to, or balance of, long service leave from weeks to hours:
 - (i) all full time Employees shall have weeks of accrued long service leave converted to hours on the basis of 1 week of accrued leave equals 38 hours of accrued leave; and
 - (ii) all part-time Employees shall have weeks of long service leave converted to hours of leave by averaging their hours worked during the last 5 years of eligible service, comparing it with the current hours worked, and using the higher figure to determine the proportion the number of hours worked by the Employee bears to 38 ('the Determined Proportion'). The Employee's leave balance, expressed in weeks, shall be multiplied by the Determined Proportion, and further multiplied by 38 hours to calculate the accrued leave balance in hours.

- (d) An Employee shall be entitled to take any accrued long service leave upon completion of ten years' service with an Employer. Provided that an Employee is further entitled to take any further leave accrued under this clause upon completion of each subsequent 5 years of service or as otherwise agreed with the Employer.
- (e) An Employee's accrued long service shall be taken at the Employee's current weekly hours of work when the long service leave is taken.

For example, an Employee works full-time for their first ten years of employment and then reduces to 19 hours per week (0.5 of full-time) for the next five years of their employment. The Employee would accrue 494 hours of long service leave for their first ten years of service and then 123.5 hours of long service leave over their next five years of service, a total of 617.5 hours long service leave. - 24.2 Subject to the provisions of the Act, disputes in relation to matters under this Agreement and the NES shall be dealt with in the following manner:

Step 1

In the first instance the parties must make a reasonable attempt to resolve the dispute at the workplace by discussions between the Employee or Employees concerned and the Principal or nominee of the Principal.

Step 2

Should the matter not be resolved at Step 1, then it may be referred by either party to the FWC, or any other person agreed between the parties, for conciliation, provided the party that refers the matter to the FWC has complied with their obligations in Step 1. During conciliation, the FWC may:

- (i) arrange conferences of the parties or their representatives at which the FWC is present; and

- (iv) if requested by the parties, make non-binding recommendations about particular aspects of a matter about which they are unable to reach agreement.

Step 3

If the FWC is unable to resolve the dispute by conciliation, the FWC may then, on application by either party:

- (ii) make a determination that is binding on the parties.

Provided, however, that the party who has initiated the application to the FWC under Step 3 has complied with their own obligations under Step 1 and Step 2.

In arbitrating the dispute the FWC may only:

- (i) give directions about the process to be followed within the School to resolve the matter in dispute; and/or
- (ii) make a determination about a matter that is provided for under this Agreement or the NES; and/or
- (iii) determine the matter in dispute consistent with the relevant provisions of this Agreement or the NES.

Note: If the FWC arbitrates the dispute it may also use the powers that are available to it under the Act. A decision the FWC makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purposes of Div 3 of Part 5-1 of the Act. Therefore an appeal may be made against the decision.

24.3 The School or the Employee may appoint another person, organisation or association to accompany and/or represent them for the purpose of this clause. Where the Employee appoints the Union, the Union shall be party to the dispute.

24.4 A Employee who is party to a dispute must, while the dispute is being resolved:

- (a) continue to work in accordance with his or her contract of employment, unless the Employee has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health and safety; and
- (b) comply with any reasonable direction given by the School to perform available work, either at the same workplace or at another workplace. If the School exercises its right to direct an Employee to perform other available work, the School must have regard to:

- (d) Any casual Employee who does not, within four weeks of receiving written notice from the Employer, elect to convert his or her ongoing contract of employment to full-time employment or part-time employment will be deemed to have elected against any such conversion.
- (e) Once a casual Employee has elected to become and been converted to a full-time Employee or a part-time Employee, the Employee may only revert to casual employment by written agreement with the Employer.
- (f) If a casual Employee has elected to have his or her contract of employment converted to full-time or part-time employment in accordance with paragraph 26.2(c), the Employer and Employee shall, in accordance with this paragraph, and subject to paragraph 26.2(c), discuss and agree upon:

- (i) whether the Employee will convert to full-time or part-time employment; and
- (ii) if it is agreed that the Employee will become a part-time Employee, the number of hours and the pattern of hours that will be worked consistent with any other part-time employment provisions of this Agreement;

Provided that an Employee who has worked on a full-time basis throughout the period of casual employment has the right to elect to convert his or her contract of employment to full-time employment and an Employee who has worked on a part-time basis during the period of casual employment has the right to elect to convert his or her contract of employment to part-time employment, on the basis of the same number of hours and times of work as previously worked, unless other arrangements are agreed between the Employer and the Employee.

- (g) Following an agreement being reached pursuant to paragraph 26.2(f), the Employee shall convert to full-time or part-time employment. If there is any dispute about the arrangements to apply to an Employee converting from casual employment to full-time or part-time employment, it shall be dealt with as far as practicable and with expedition through Clause 24 – Dispute Procedures.
- (h) An Employee must not be engaged and re-engaged, dismissed or replaced in order to avoid any obligation under this subclause.

 - (iv) allowances;
 - (v) leave loading; and
- (b) the arrangement meets the genuine needs of the Employer and Employee in relation to one or more of the matters mentioned in paragraph 27.1(a); and
- (c) the arrangement is genuinely agreed to by the Employer and Employee.

27.2 The Employer must ensure that the terms of the individual flexibility arrangement:

- (a) are about permitted matters under section 172 of the Act; and
- (b) are not unlawful terms under section 194 of the Act; and
- (c) result in the Employee being better off overall than the Employee would be if no arrangement was made.

27.3 The Employer must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:

- (a) is in writing; and
- (b) includes the name of the Employer and Employee; and
- (c) is signed by the Employer and Employee and if the Employee is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the Employee; and
- (d) includes details of:
 - (i) the terms of this Agreement that will be varied by the arrangement; and
 - (ii) how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms; and
 - (iii) how the Employee will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of his or her employment as a result of the arrangement; and
- (e) states the day on which the arrangement commences.

- 27.4 The Employer must give the Employee a copy of the individual flexibility arrangement within 14 days after it is agreed to.
- 27.5 The Employer or Employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:
- (a) by giving no more than 28 days written notice to the other party to the arrangement; or
 - (b) if the Employer and Employee agree in writing – at any time.

28. Right to Request Flexible Working Arrangements

28.1 If any of the circumstances referred to in subclause 28.2 apply to an Employee, and the Employee would like to change his or her working arrangements because of those circumstances, then the Employee may request the Employer for a change in working arrangements relating to those circumstances.

(N.B. examples of changes in working arrangements include change in hours of work, changes in patterns of work and changes in location of work).

28.2 The following are the circumstances:

- (a) The Employee is the parent, or has responsibility for the care, of a child who is of school age or younger;
- (b) the Employee is a carer (within the meaning of the Carer Recognition Act 2010);
- (c) the Employee has a disability;
- (d) the Employee is 55 or older;
- (e) the Employee is experiencing violence from a member of the Employee's family;
- (f) the Employee provides care or support to a member of the Employee's immediate family, or a member of the Employee's household, who requires care or support because the member is experiencing violence from the member's family.

To avoid doubt, and without limiting the above provisions, an Employee who is a parent, or has responsibility for the care of a child, and is returning to work after taking leave in relation to the birth or adoption of the child, may request to work part-time to assist the Employee to care for the child.

28.3 The Employee is not entitled to make the request unless:

- (a) for an Employee other than a casual Employee – the Employee has completed at least 12 months of continuous service with the Employer immediately before making the request; or
- (b) for a casual Employee – the Employee:
 - (i) is a long term casual Employee of the Employer immediately before making a request; and
 - (ii) has a reasonable expectation of continuing employment with the Employer on a regular and systematic basis.
- (c) the request must:
 - (i) be in writing; and
 - (ii) set out details of the change sought and of the reasons for the change.

28.4 Before responding to a request made under this clause, the Employer must discuss the request with the Employee and genuinely try to reach agreement on a change in working arrangements that will reasonably accommodate the Employee's circumstances having regard to:

- (a) the needs of the Employee arising from their circumstances;

- (b) the consequences for the Employee if changes in working arrangements are not made; and
 - (c) any reasonable business grounds for refusing the request.
- 28.5 The Employer must give the Employee a written response to the request within 21 days, stating whether the Employer grants or refuses the request. If the Employer refuses the request, the written response must include details of the reasons for the refusal. The Employer may refuse the request only on reasonable business grounds. Reasonable business grounds include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (a) that the new working arrangements requested by the Employee would be too costly for the Employer;
 - (b) that there is no capacity to change the working arrangements of other Employees to accommodate the new working arrangements requested by the Employee;
 - (c) that it would be impractical to change the working arrangements of other Employees, or recruit new Employees, to accommodate the new working arrangements requested by the Employee;
 - (d) that the new working arrangements requested by the Employee would be likely to result in a significant loss in efficiency or productivity;
 - (e) that the new working arrangements requested by the Employee would be likely to have a significant negative impact on student learning or the operation of the school.
- 28.6 If the Employer and Employee could not agree on a change in working arrangements under subclause 28.4, the written response under subclause 28.5 must:
- (a) state whether or not there are any changes in working arrangements that the Employer can offer the Employee so as to better accommodate the Employee's circumstances; and
 - (b) if the Employer can offer the Employee such changes in working arrangements, set out those changes in working arrangements.
- 28.7 If the Employer and Employee reached an agreement under subclause 28.4 on a change in working arrangements that differs from that initially requested by the Employee, the Employer must provide the Employee with a written response to their request setting out the agreed change(s) in working arrangements.

29. Savings

29.1 No Employee shall, as a result of the making of this Agreement:

- (a) receive less than the rate of pay received by the Employee immediately prior to the date of commencement of this Agreement;
- (b) suffer a reduction in leave conditions and contractual entitlements received by the Employee as at the date of commencement of this Agreement;
- (c) be reclassified under a different job classification without the written consent of the Employee.

29.2 Further savings provisions are contained in this Agreement at:

- (a) paragraph 5.2(c) regarding stand down during school vacation periods; and
- (b) subclause 16.9 regarding the annual leave entitlements of Nursing Staff Employees engaged prior to 1 December 2005.

30. No Extra Claims

Except as provided by the Act, prior to 31 December 2021, there will be no further claims by the parties to this Agreement for changes to rates of pay, allowances, or other terms and conditions of employment in relation to matters expressly contained in this Agreement.
