This policy supersedes all previous policies relating to matters contained herein.

WHISTLE BLOWING POLICY

INTRODUCTION

Maronite College of the Holy Family ensures that where a disclosure has been made, the protection of individuals who disclose information about illegal or improper conduct occurring within Maronite College of the Holy Family.

This Policy has been adopted to provide a safe and confidential environment where such concerns can be raised by whistle blowers (preferred term is “a discloser”) without fear of reprisal or detrimental treatment.

This policy sets out:

- What conduct is considered to be reportable under this Policy.
- Who is entitled to protection as a Discloser under this policy and the Corporations Act.
- The protections Disclosers are entitled to under this Policy and under the Corporations Act.
- How disclosures made by a Discloser in accordance with this Policy and under the Corporations Act will be handled by Maronite College of the Holy Family.

All employees and contractors of must comply with this Policy.

This policy is available to all employees of Maronite College of the Holy Family under College Policies and Procedures in our intranet, SharePoint.

1. LEGAL FRAMEWORK

The Corporations Act 2001 (Catholic)

2. DEFINITIONS

“ASIC” means the Australian Investment and Securities Commission.

“APRA” means the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority.

“Associate” means any individual within the meaning of the Corporations Act.

“Corporations Act” means the Corporations Act 2001 (Catholic).

“Personal Work-Related Grievance” is as defined in section 1317AADA of the Corporations Act and may include the following grievances:

3.1 OTHER DISCLOSURES

3.1.1 CHILD/STUDENT WELFARE

Maronite College of the Holy Family has a robust process in place to disclose, report and investigate incidents of suspected child and young person abuse. Refer to our Child Protection Policy and Procedures and disclosing procedures, located on our website and the intranet, SharePoint. Our Whistle Blowing Policy does not supersede that process.

3.1.2 CHILD/PARENT

Maronite College of the Holy Family has a robust process in place to disclose, report and investigate incidents of pre-natal concerns. Refer to our Child Protection Policy and Procedures for disclosing, located on our website and the intranet, SharePoint. Our Whistle Blowing Policy does not supersede that process.

3.1.3 WORK-RELATED MATTERS

Wherever possible, employees should raise concerns openly with their supervisor, Head of College or Executive Principal. Concerns may be raised verbally or in writing. Please refer to our Complaints Handling Policy and Procedures for All Stakeholders for managing workplace complaints. Refer also to the College's Employment Relations Policy and Procedures for work related matters.

3.1.3.1 SOLELY WORK-RELATED GRIEVANCES

Disclosures concerning solely personal work related grievances do not qualify for protection under the Corporations Act. A personal work-related grievance includes for example:

- An interpersonal conflict between the Discloser and another employee.
- A decision that does not involve a breach of workplace laws.
- A decision about the conditions of engagement, suspension or termination of the Discloser.

3.1.3.2 WORK-RELATED GRIEVANCES AND OTHER ISSUES

Disclosure of a personal work-related grievance may still qualify for protection under the Corporations Act if:

- It also contains information concerning a disclosable matter.
- The College has breached employment or other laws punishable by imprisonment of 12 months or more, engaged in conduct that represents a danger to the public, or relates to information suggesting misconduct beyond the Discloser's personal circumstances.
- The Discloser suffers from or is threatened with detriment for making a disclosure.
- The Discloser seeks legal advice about the operation of the Disclosure's protections under the Corporations Act.

6. HOW MARONITE COLLEGE OF THE HOLY FAMILY INVESTIGATES DISCLOSURES

6.1 The person who receives the disclosure will promptly forward it to the Executive Principal who will determine:

- a. If the disclosure is not covered by the policy, then the investigation will not proceed and the discloser will be advised.
- b. If the disclosure is covered by the policy, the Executive Principal will:
 - i. Recommend an investigation of the disclosure.
 - ii. Propose the investigation process, including the resources required, the people to be involved and external support.
 - iii. Nominate the Investigation Officer and the Protection Officer.

iv. Update the Discloser as required.

6.2 Any formal investigation of a disclosure will be undertaken by an impartial senior person, or an external investigator.

6.3 Maronite College of the Holy Family will ensure that the investigation:

- a) Is conducted promptly
- b) Sufficiently resourced
- c) Conducted in a fair and objective manner.
- d) Conducted in strict confidence.
- e) Protects the identity of the person who made the disclosure.
- f) Gives the opportunity to any person who is adversely mentioned in the disclosure an opportunity to respond prior to any findings being made.

6.4 At the conclusion of the investigation, the investigator will provide the Principal with a report that will summarise how the investigation was conducted, the evidence collected and contain findings in relation to the allegations in the disclosure and recommend any action required.

6.5 Following receipt of the investigation report, the Executive Principal will take appropriate action, which may include:

- a) Implementing the recommendations of the investigator.
- b) Requesting further investigation.
- c) Recommending disciplinary action.
- d) Notifying regulatory or law enforcement bodies.

6.6 The whistle blower will be informed of the results of the investigation following the Executive Principal taking the steps in 6.5 above. However, some circumstances may limit the information provided to the person, such as confidentiality or other legal constraints.

7. PROTECTION FOR WHISTLEBLOWERS

7.1 A whistle blower is entitled to protection of their identity, or information that is likely to lead to their identity becoming known. The whistle blower's identity or information that is likely to lead to their identity becoming known, can only be disclosed where it is made to:

- a) An in-house or external lawyer for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or legal representation.
- b) ASIC.
- c) APRA.
- d) A Commonwealth, State or Territory Authority for the purposes of assisting them in the performance of their duties.
- e) The Australian Federal Police.
- f) A Court or Tribunal, in circumstances where it is considered necessary in the interests of justice or is otherwise made with the consent of the whistle blower.

A whistle blower's identity may be disclosed to others as part of the investigation process, but only if necessary and Maronite College of the Holy Family will take all reasonable steps to avoid the identification of the whistle blower.

7.2 Other protections provided to whistle blowers are:

- a) Maronite College of the Holy Family will not cause any detriment to the whistle blower because of the disclosure.
- b) Anyone who causes or threatens to cause detriment to a whistle blower or another person in the belief or suspicion that a report has been made, or may have been made, proposes to or could be made, may be guilty of an offence under the Corporations Act and may be liable for damages.
- c) The whistle blower has immunity from any civil, criminal or administrative legal action (including disciplinary action) as a result of making the disclosure.
- d) No contractual or other remedies may be enforced and no contractual or other right may be exercised, against the whistle blower for making the disclosure.
