Term 4 - Week 1: Friday 13th October 2023

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE PRINCIPAL – Sr Margaret Ghosn

Dear MCHF community,

Welcome to the final term for the year and as we all know, the most busiest term. We have a great deal happening this term including but not limited to the events below:

- HSC final exams commenced 11 October and we pray that our students perform to the best of their ability.
- Friday 20 October we have our 2024 Leaders Induction Mass
- Friday 20 October, we have our 50 year dinner dance and all are invited to purchase tickets and attend for what promises to be a great night.
- Friday 27 October we have World Teachers' Day
- Monday 6 November is the Y12 formal
- Thursday 16 November we have the TAS and CAPA Expo
- Wednesday 29 November – Primary end-of-year concert
- Friday 1 December – Y6 Graduation
- Friday 1 December – Secondary Expo
- Monday 4 December – Primary end of term awards
- Tuesday 5 December – Christmas Mass, Secondary awards and last day for students

We also have end of year exams and assessments, marking and report writing. In order for us to get through this very busy term, I ask that parents, students and teachers all work together to support one another.

Congratulations to our Year 11 students, Yasmina Taouk and Joe Hage, who will receive awards for their essays in the Gibran Khalil Gibran Essay competition. Yasmina and Joe wrote their essays on "Friendship". The award ceremony will be held on 20th October.
